Noir — Porcesshine

Noir Black 120x120

Noir

A close-up view of a marble pattern in a dark, almost black, color. The pattern consists of numerous thin, irregular veins in shades of white and light grey, creating a complex, web-like texture. The veins vary in thickness and orientation, some running vertically, some horizontally, and many at diagonal angles.

Noir Black

A close-up view of a marble pattern in a light, off-white color. The pattern features thin, irregular veins in shades of grey and brown, creating a delicate, grid-like texture. The veins are more widely spaced than in the black version, giving it a softer appearance.
